VP of Operations/Assistant Manager
Lower Columbia Longshoremen's Federal Credit Union
$64M assets
Longview, WA

Lower Columbia Longshoremen's Federal Credit Union (LCLFCU), a $64 Million full service credit union located in Longview, Washington, is seeking a goal oriented, self-motivated VP of Operations/Assistant Manager. This position reports to and partners with the Manager, and is responsible for the supervision of all operational staff and operational functions of the credit union.

The successful candidate will have a robust financial literacy background, a high degree of self-motivation, self-confidence, accuracy, and strong organizational skills. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a passion for continuous learning and professional development. Experience with all operational departmental functions is highly desirable.

In this role, you will add value through the recommendation of policies and design of effective and successful procedures and operations that ensure the credit union meets its goals and objectives. You will create an information reporting process to validate progress on initiatives and strategic goals. You must bring to the role strong training skills and competencies, the ability and expertise to conduct performance evaluations, and continual education of staff. Managing strategic partner and vendor relationships, and oversight of member marketing, is critical to the success of the role.

Your interpersonal skills will include integrity, employee development, communication, and solid organizational skills. We are looking for 5 years of management expertise in a financial organization. A college degree is preferable as is ongoing education.
