

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
South Jersey Federal Credit Union
$333M Assets
Deptford Township, NJ (Philadelphia Area)

The Board of Directors will charge the CEO with ushering the credit union forward in becoming the premier financial institution in the region. The progressive Board is seeking a dynamic leader to initiate the next legacy of leadership at the helm of this well-established and successful credit union. This is a unique opportunity to lead an organization with more than 700 SEGs, various community charters, six branches, and an e-delivery channel, in addition to a well-established brand and reputation in the marketplace. The successful candidate will have a proven track record of stably building operations in a diverse economic environment through organic and non-organic means.

The ideal candidate has enhanced the infrastructure of his or her current organization and evolved the value proposition to an economically and culturally diverse membership. With a strong operations background, this leader will blend futuristic thinking with implementation. The Board is also seeking a leader who has the ability to establish and continue building relationships, locally and in the industry, with such organizations as the Chamber of Commerce and League. Candidates with at least ten years credit union C-level experience, master's degree, and an ambitious appetite will be considered.

ABOUT SOUTH JERSEY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

With the retiring CEO at the helm for forty years, the credit union has a history of progressive organic and non-organic growth, including 22 mergers. After more than doubling the credit union's assets in the last 10 years, the Board continues to seek opportunities for growth in scale, product/service scope, and efficiency. With six branches, 124 employees, and an opportunity to on-board a new CFO, the organization sees the retirement of two key executives as an opportunity for continuing progressive change.
