

VICE PRESIDENT/FINANCE
South Jersey Federal Credit Union
$333M Assets
Deptford Township, NJ (Philadelphia Area)

South Jersey is searching for a lead financial officer to join the organization as vice president or chief financial officer. In this role you will have responsibility to enhance and sustain both operational effectiveness and profitability. You will strategically manage, with the CEO, the organization's financial functions, optimizing the balance sheet for organic and non-organic growth and scale.

As a direct report to the CEO, the successful candidate will chair the ALCO committee and manage the budgeting process, financial reporting, and sizable investment portfolio. This executive will lead, educate, and engage a team of analysts and accounting staff to streamline financial operations and increase margins and non-interest income. Depending upon experience, education, and ambition you have the opportunity to assume responsibility for additional operations.

This is an opportunity for a technically sound financial professional, with required financial industry expertise, to broaden his/her leadership skills, grow into additional operational areas, and be an integral part of the strategic planning process.

ABOUT SOUTH JERSEY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

This financial organization faces an unprecedented opportunity to continue the legacy of community engagement. With the full support of an engaged and diverse board, the organization has 22 mergers in its history, remains flexible in its product offerings, and has a branch delivery channel that rivals large institutions. With an expanding branch footprint, 124 employees, and an opportunity to evolve as a culture, the organization sees the retirement of two key executives as an opportunity to continue progressive change.

South Jersey Federal was originally chartered in 1940 for the employees of the New York Shipbuilding Company in Camden. Today more than 45k people are served in the communities of Atlantic City, Bridgeton, Camden, Lawnside, Millville, Pleasantville, Salem, and Vineland.
