

SVP/Chief Financial Officer
Arizona Federal Credit Union ($1.3B Assets)
Phoenix, Arizona

Our client is one of the most respected leadership teams in credit unions and they are looking for an exemplary CFO to join the team. As CFO, you will be in a role to fully utilize your expertise and leadership capacity and be part of a high-performing organization. This CFO role provides an opportunity to fully leverage your leadership character and competency along with top-notch financial skills. The CEO and board require a true CFO with a powerful blend of strategic and technical skills.

Collaborative relations and work style are expected with the board, CEO, peers, direct reports, and business partners. Your primary role includes strategic planning, financial planning, budgeting, balance sheet optimization, and investment strategies. Additionally, your ALM, ERM, liquidity, capital, and net worth management expertise will be well utilized.

The top candidate will have strong leadership competence and character in order to build mutual respect with other stakeholders. Decision-making needs to be grounded with analytics and an objective perspective. Mentoring and developing others is a requisite as is a strong knowledge of the banking industry. In addition to an education in finance or economics, a CFA is preferred. Most important, is your expertise and how you apply them as part of a high performing team.
