

Advancing Leadership Success

VICE PRESIDENT, LENDING & PROGRAMS

Confidential Financial Institution

Between $300M and $600M in assets

Philadelphia, PA

Lending executive needed for progressive culture and growing financial institution. Lending skills required encompass the full range of consumer products including direct and indirect autos, credit cards, and home equity loans. Expertise in first mortgages, student loans, and participations is desired.

The successful candidate will be one who blends well with the culture, enjoys building teams and camaraderie, and is adept and flexible with both detailed and strategic contributions. The culture is friendly, mutually supportive, and accountable for success. The new vice president of lending & programs is a member of the senior management team and must have proven expertise in management, leadership, employee development, regulatory compliance, and accountable for the success of the entire team.

The candidate must be at ease in coaching and mentoring situations and performing detailed work while, at the same time, being visionary and strategic. Presentations to the board are on a regular schedule, and this vice president will attend board, pricing, and ALCO meetings as well as annual strategic planning sessions and participate in outside professional organization meetings on a regular basis.

Compensation and benefits are competitive.
