

ASSOCIATE TREASURER

Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines

$1.6B Assets

Des Moines, IA

This member-owned, diverse bank is looking for an associate treasurer to join their team. The Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines is an inclusive, community-oriented financial institution that works to develop its employees and the community where they are placed.

The associate treasurer is responsible for managing key aspects of the bank's daily liquidity management, debt issuance (funding), investments and derivatives, defining and implementing a framework to be utilized in the day-to-day management of capital market activities, and assess the impact of business decisions. The associate treasurer is also responsible for providing clear and concise reporting of potential strategies while analyzing the adherence to regulatory and bank policy limits. The associate treasurer is responsible for managing and developing team members through communication, feedback, coaching, and performance evaluations.

Qualified candidates will have a masters degree in business administration, finance, economics, mathematics, statistics, or a related field or will have a CFA designation. Qualified candidates will have eight years experience in fixed income portfolio management or trading; short-term money markets, treasury, agency, mortgage-backed securities and/or interest rate derivatives; five to seven years of relevant management experience; expert knowledge with the markets; and an understanding of finance, economics, accounting, investment, and banking principles and practices. Compensation for this position is $189,600 annually.
