

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
Eagle Community Credit Union

This financial institution is looking for a turnaround CFO to be strategic change agent, implement financial, planning, budgeting and accounting systems and processes that best use resources and support the strategic charter of the credit union. You need to understand credit union financial and accounting processes to proactively assess and course correct as needed. Your background needs proven accomplishments and achievements for driving profitability with innovation rather than just cost cutting. Be able to evaluate current products, services and branches to understand how they contribute to profitability while being a visionary to innovate current resources to best serve the members while improving capital and ROA.

This team is dedicated, hard working and committed. The CEO appreciates and expects a CFO who can take action while maintaining dignity of a committed team. Entrepreneurial leadership with the ability to pay attention to the detail below the surface is a critical required skill. With your ability to take effective action, manage a quality team and look into the future this is a win-win for you and the credit union.

Expertise is required in balance sheet management, asset/liability management, interest rate risk, accounting, financial planning and budgeting. You need to be able to manage IT and ensure quality service to internal and external customers.

Your recruiter, DDJ Myers, Ltd. specializes in creating and supporting learning organizations in financial organizations through best in class executive recruitment, organization assessment, succession planning, leadership development training, mentoring and coaching programs.
