SPECIALISTS IN ADVANCING EXECUTIVE AND TEAM LEADERSHIP

Chief Executive Officer
Kentucky Telco Federal Credit Union
Louisville, Kentucky

Located in Louisville, Kentucky, $214 million (assets) organization possesses a solid track record of sustainable asset growth supported by consistent profit. Historically established to serve telephone employees, they blend a geographic charter covering much of Louisville, KY and in Kanawha Valley, WV with 450 SEG groups. The orderly retirement of its CEO provides for the opportunity to step into a successful organization and move it into its future.

This extraordinary opportunity will allow you to build a service organization based on employee development and futuristic thinking. An ability to take action, remain flexible to change and opportunity, and adept decision making skills are requirements. Potential candidates will be considered from beyond the Credit Union industry, with emphasis on the ability to lead and build a financial service organization.

DDJ Myers, Ltd. is managing the search for the Search Committee. Our process includes in-depth interviews, behavioral profiling, leadership assessments and an emotional intelligence profile as well as an essay questionnaire. We prefer resumes that 'tell your story' as opposed to those that 'look professional.' Our commitment is to locate and recruit the best talent for this position.
