Introduction

Research has proven that job-related talents are directly related to job satisfaction and personal performance. People are well positioned to achieve success when they are engaged in work suited to their inherent skills, behavioral style and unique values. Your TriMetrix® DNA Talent Report can be compared with specific job requirements outlined in the TriMetrix® DNA Job Report. When the talent required by the job is clearly defined and in turn matched to the individual, everyone wins!

The following is a highly-personalized portrait of your talent in three main sections:

Competencies Hierarchy (25 Areas)

This section presents 25 key competencies and ranks them from top to bottom, defining your major strengths. The skills at the top highlight well-developed capabilities and reveal where you are naturally most effective in focusing your time.

Driving Forces Clusters (12 Areas)

This section identifies what drives you. In order to be successful and energized on the job, it is important that your driving forces are in alignment with the rewards of your role.

Behavioral Hierarchy (12 Areas)

This section ranks the traits that most closely describe your natural behavior. When your job requires the use of your top behavioral traits, your potential for success increases, as do your levels of personal and professional satisfaction.

Summary of Top Competencies

This section provides detail on your top seven competencies. Apply your strongest competencies to your job as appropriate and develop further competencies as required.

Driving Forces Feedback

This section expands on your Primary Driving Forces Cluster. You will feel energized and successful at work when your job supports and satisfies these driving forces.

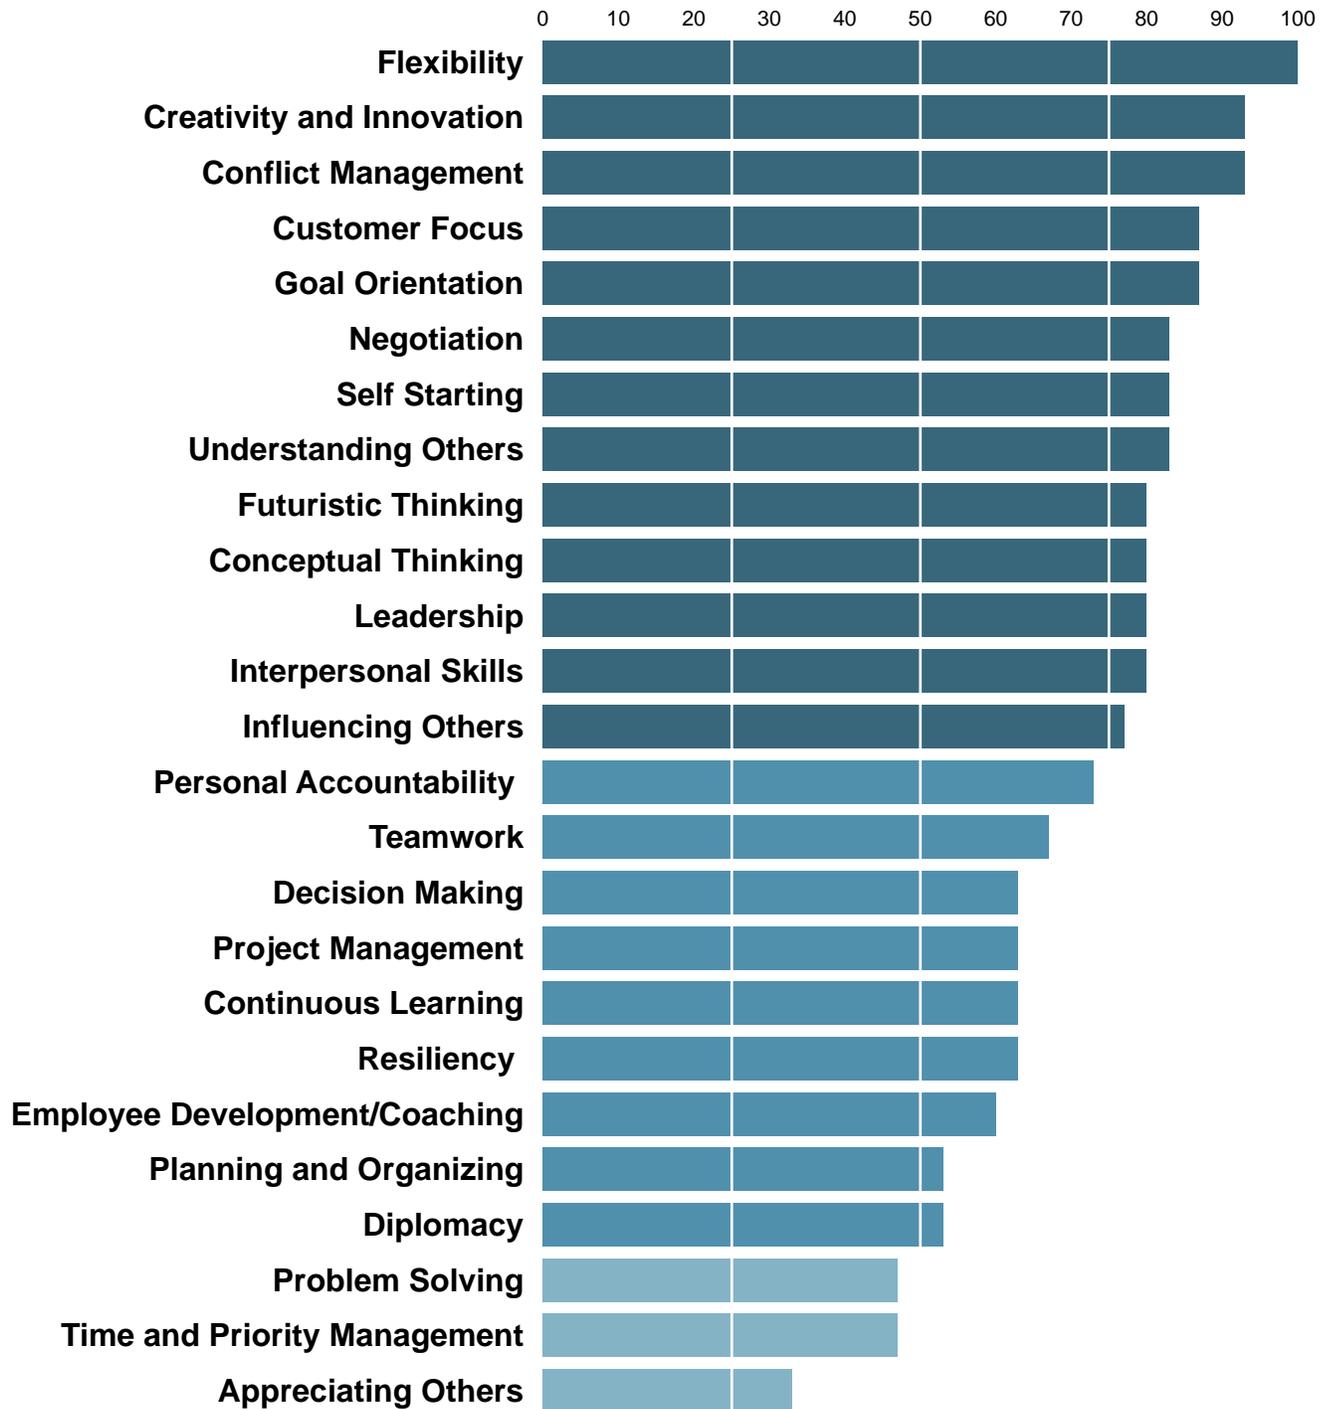

Behavioral Feedback

This section gives you insight into your top four behavioral traits to further identify your unique strengths.

Development Indicator

This section of your report shows your development level of 25 personal skills based on your responses to the questionnaire.

Primary Driving Forces Cluster

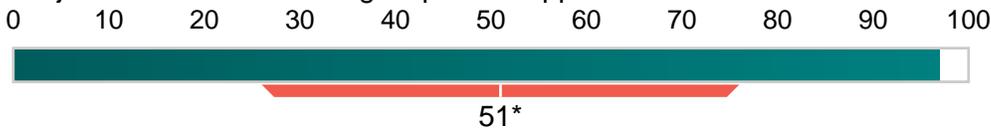

Your top driving forces create a cluster of drivers that move you to action. If you focus on the cluster rather than a single driver you can create combinations of factors that are very specific to you. The closer the scores are to each other the more you can pull from each driver. Think about the driver that you can relate to most and then see how your other primary drivers can support or complement to create your unique driving force.

1. Resourceful - People who are driven by practical results, maximizing both efficiency and returns for their investments of time, talent, energy and resources.

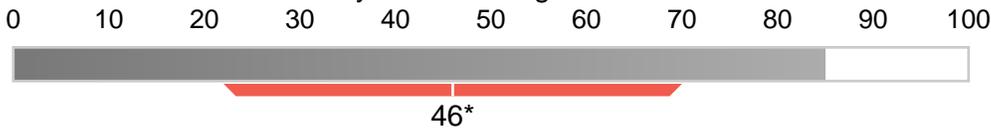

100

2. Intentional - People who are driven to assist others for a specific purpose, not just for the sake of being helpful or supportive.

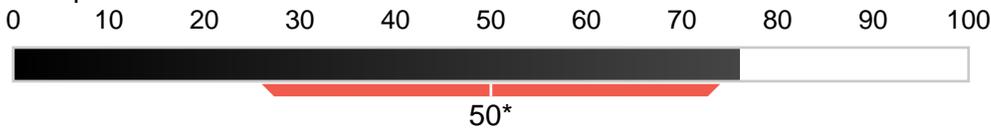

97

3. Receptive - People who are driven by new ideas, methods and opportunities that fall outside a defined system for living.

85

4. Commanding - People who are driven by status, recognition and control over personal freedom.

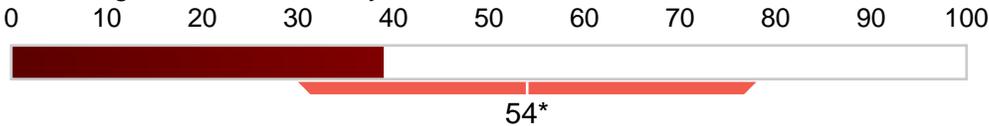

76

Situational Driving Forces Cluster

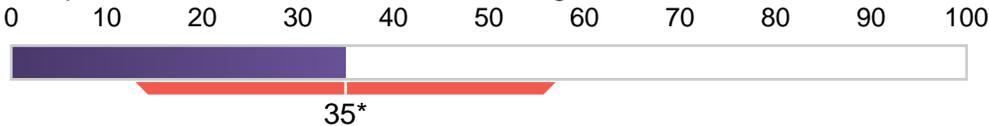

Your middle driving forces create a cluster of drivers that come in to play on a situational basis. While not as significant as your primary drivers, they can influence your actions in certain scenarios.

5. Intellectual - People who are driven by opportunities to learn, acquire knowledge and the discovery of truth.

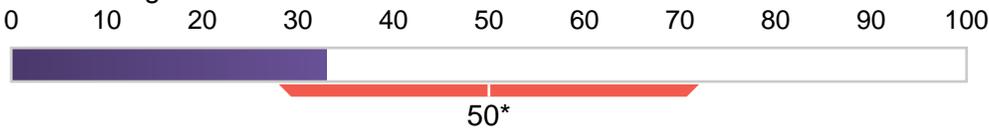

39

6. Harmonious - People who are driven by the experience, subjective viewpoints and balance in their surroundings.

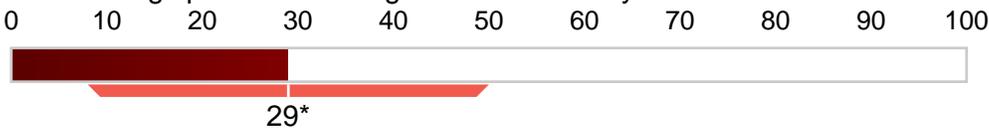

35

7. Objective - People who are driven by the functionality and objectivity of their surroundings.

33

8. Instinctive - People who are driven by utilizing past experiences, intuition and seeking specific knowledge when necessary.

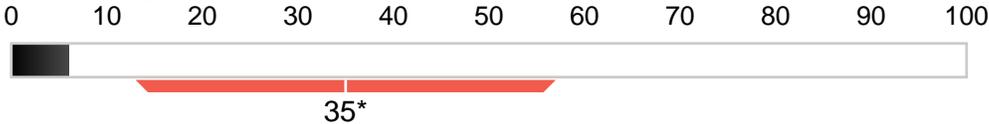

29

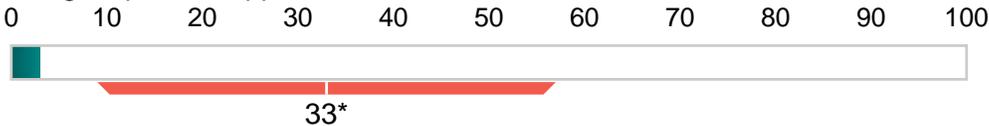

Indifferent Driving Forces Cluster

You may feel indifferent toward some or all of the drivers in this cluster. However, the remaining factors may cause an adverse reaction when interacting with people who have one or more of these as a primary driving force.

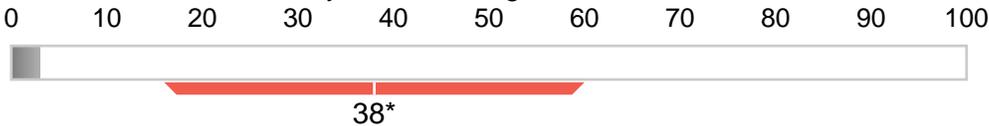

9. Collaborative - People who are driven by being in a supporting role and contributing with little need for individual recognition.

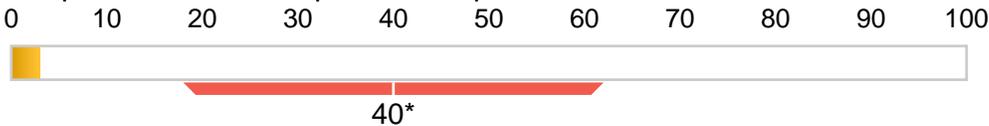

10. Altruistic - People who are driven to assist others for the satisfaction of being helpful or supportive.

11. Structured - People who are driven by traditional approaches, proven methods and a defined system for living.

12. Selfless - People who are driven by completing tasks for the sake of completion, with little expectation of personal return.

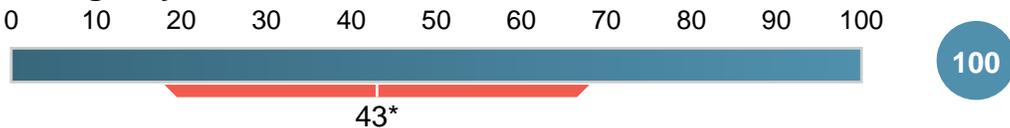

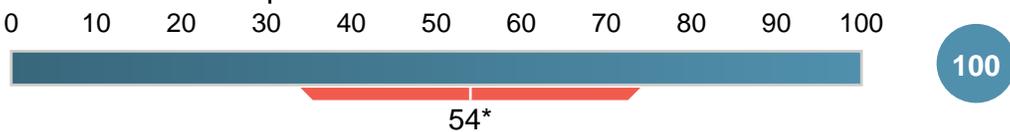

Behavioral Hierarchy

Your observable behavior and related emotions contribute to your success on the job. When matched to the job, they play a large role in enhancing your performance. The list below ranks your behavioral traits from the strongest to the weakest.

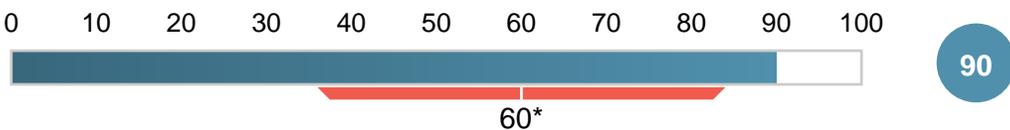

1. Urgency - Take immediate action.

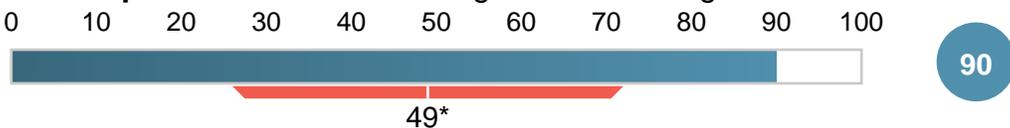

2. Versatile - Adapt to various situations with ease.

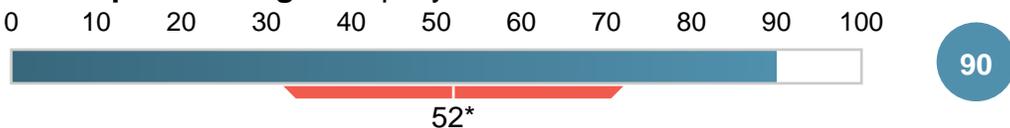

3. Interaction - Frequently engage and communicate with others.

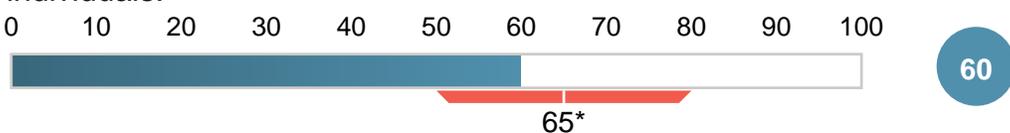

4. Competitive - Want to win or gain an advantage.

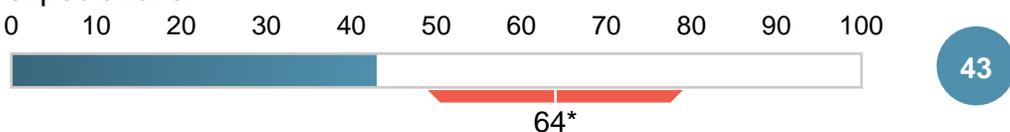

5. Frequent Change - Rapidly shift between tasks.

6. People-Oriented - Build rapport with a wide range of individuals.

7. Customer-Oriented - Identify and fulfill customer expectations.

Driving Forces Feedback

Your motivation to succeed is, in part, determined by your underlying driving forces. You will feel energized and successful at work when your job supports and satisfies these driving forces. The following 4 factors make up your primary driving forces cluster.

1. Resourceful
 - You are driven by practical results, maximizing both efficiency and returns for your investments of time, talent, energy and resources.
2. Intentional
 - You are driven to assist others for a specific purpose, not just for the sake of being helpful or supportive.
3. Receptive
 - You are driven by new ideas, methods and opportunities that fall outside a defined system for living.
4. Commanding
 - You are driven by status, recognition and control over personal freedom.

Behavioral Feedback

Your observable behavior and related emotions contribute to your success on the job. When matched to the job, they play a large role in enhancing your performance. The following are your 3 highest ranked behavioral traits:

1. Urgency
 - You are decisive and quick to respond. You are able to make on-the-spot decisions with good judgment and meet deadlines on time.
2. Versatile
 - You easily adapt to changes with a high level of optimism and a "can do" orientation.
3. Interaction
 - You prefer to interact with others rather than deal with tasks.
4. Competitive
 - Consistent winning is critical. You are tenacious, bold, assertive and have a "will to win" in highly competitive situations.

Behavioral Feedback

Samuel embraces visions not always seen by others. Samuel's creative mind allows him to see the "big picture." He is goal-oriented and driven by results. He is the team member who will try to keep the others on task. Most people see him as a high risk-taker. His view is, "nothing ventured, nothing gained." He prefers an environment with variety and change. He is at his best when many projects are underway at once. Samuel is extremely results-oriented, with a sense of urgency to complete projects quickly. He is deadline conscious and becomes irritated if deadlines are delayed or missed. Many people see him as a self-starter dedicated to achieving results. He needs to learn to relax and pace himself. He may expend too much energy trying to control himself and others.
